One Firefighter Injury

INCIDENT SUMMARY:

Virazon Incident: On Wednesday, September 17, 2014, at 6:40 p.m., a house fire occurred at 2016 Virazon Drive in the City of La Habra Heights. At 6:53 p.m., La Habra Heights officials requested our assistance. We deployed 15 Los Angeles County Fire personnel, including two engines, one quint, one squad, and one battalion chief. With our help, the fire was knocked down at 7:59 p.m., and was determined to be caused by an unattended crack pipe. All units were released at 9:31 p.m.

During fire suppression efforts, one firefighter suffered heat exhaustion and was transported by ground ambulance to St Jude Medical Center, where he was treated and released home. No other firefighter injuries were reported
